

Please do not weaken Wisconsin's "do not call" list program.
Since the do not call list was put into effect there is a very noticable improvement to our family's evenings at home (because the phone is not constantly ringing). Nobody in this state wants the rules weakened (other than those involved in telemarketing).
If the rules are weakened it will be a travesty!